COTTON MARKETS.

New York, January 20.—The cutton market was very quiet again to-day, but ruled steady after an early decline and closed steady net I points lower to I points largher, with the new crop relatively firm. The opening was barely steady with January unchanged and other months from Area points lower in response to disappointing, cables. There was some local selling and statering liquidation as a result of less favorable Marknester advices and private cables from Liverpeol, attributing the decline there to easier Southern epot offering, and right after the opening active positions sold off a point of two. Around 1485 for Mark however, there was enough trade buying to absorb offering, and later the marker ruled generally steady on builtsh private city advices from the South, more optimistic for private advices from the South, more optimistic reappoints of the domestic trade situation and private advices from the South was claiming that high winds and warm weather were aggravating the drought situation and that the mild winter had favored the boilt weevil. The best prices of the fath were from Southern spot markets reported of itality to the exchange did not confirm the Liverpool reports of casier offerings, and the close was within a point or two of the private continued full, exceeding the days.
